Lord,

We Come to the Table with anticipation and reverence. May this Eucharistic Revival renew our spirits, deepen our connection with You, and empower us to live out the transformative love we find in your son, Jesus Christ.

As we approach the Table, unite us in gratitude and humility. Let the bread and wine remind us of your sacrifice, a feast of redemption where we are welcome. May this revival ignite a hunger for spiritual nourishment, drawing us closer to the essence of your grace.

Through the Diocese of Gaylord's Catholic Services Appeal, may our faith in the Eucharist be deepened and our hearts transformed. Strengthen the bonds within our parishes, supporting local minister-ies that reflect Your compassion and mercy. Amen.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We don't talk openly about the Parish Prayer Chain, but I am going to start there with this letter. I would like to publish, in the bulletin, the list of those who request our prayers, not "why" they want prayers, the Lord already knows the reason, but just their names. Of course if you don't want your name in the bulletin then you don't have to have it there; however, prayer is such a powerful tool for healing and solidarity with one another that I think the more prayers the better. The people on the prayer chain itself will continue to pray just as diligently with the knowledge that is given to them as they always have.

The May Ministers' Schedule is on the white board...The last weekend of the month is Memorial Day Weekend and we return to two Sunday Masses. I do not have enough Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to have more than two ministers of the Chalice at ANY of the weekend Masses. I will begin working on the June schedule soon, but we really are in need of people to step forward to be Extraordinary Ministers, Altar Servers, and Sacristans. I know that I ask about this all the time, but it really is becoming more and more of a problem. We can't expect the same people to cover every Mass, like you, they have visitors, family events, and vacations planned, especially in the summer months. PLEASE, help.

I spoke with Pudge Griffen today. It was so wonderful to have a conversation with such a dear friend and member of the parish; yes! I said member, just like Lou Laske, Jack Maurer, Kathy and Jerry Robert...will always be members here. They may have moved a little further down the road, but they are still with us. Pudge reminded me to send her love and well wishes to the parishioners. Consider it done.

We will start the new CSA campaign next weekend...please look into your hearts and pray about this year's contribution to the maintenance of our diocese.

May God bless each and everyone of you,
Kristin

May God reach down and touch

You in His own special way.

May you know you are loved

Each and every single day.

May you see from God's dear eyes the value of your worth.

May His eyes show you the most Precious things on earth.
